DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

- I. Claims 1-25, drawn to a method, classified in class 438, subclass 725.
- II. Claims 26-31, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 642.
- III. Claims 32-47, drawn to a device, classified in class 257, subclass 642.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case unpatentability of the Group II product invention would not necessarily imply unpatentability of the Group I process invention, because the product of the Group II invention could be made by a materially different process from that of the Group I invention. For example, the product of claim 26 could be made by a process which unselectively consolidates unconsolidated dielectric material both adjacent and non-adjacent a periphery of at least one aperture and then selectively removes the consolidated dielectric material that is non-adjacent the periphery of the at least one aperture, a process materially different from the process of claim 1.

Inventions II and III are related as apparatus and product made. The inventions in this relationship are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the apparatus as claimed is not an obvious apparatus for making the product and the apparatus can be used for making a different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different apparatus (MPEP § 806.05(g)). In the instant case unpatentability of the Group II product invention would not necessarily imply unpatentability of the Group III apparatus invention, because the product of the Group II invention could be made by a materially different apparatus from that of the Group I invention. For example, the product of claim 26 could be made by an apparatus which comprises a material consolidation element configured to unselectively consolidate unconsolidated dielectric material both adjacent and non-adjacent a periphery of at least one aperture and a selective removal element configured to selectively remove the consolidated dielectric material that is non-adjacent the periphery of the at least one aperture, an apparatus materially different from the apparatus of claim 32.

Inventions I and III are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process as claimed could be performed by hand.

2. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement is traversed (37 CFR 1.143).
